The Modesty of Women

Naturally makes them shrink from the indelicate questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispenses with the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It almost always cures. It is strictly non-alcoholic, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients, will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of KNOWN COMPOSITION. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound.

If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, it uniformly cures all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

WILLIAM PENN AND WESTMINSTER ABBEY.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette.

In your recent notice of the objections from certain quarters of England to the burial of William Penn's remains in Westminster Abbey I think you are rather inclined to view the matter from a partisan point, and as you have no words of defense for the great law giver against the attacks of his enemies, you seem to leave your readers, not acquainted with the facts, to make wrong and unjust inferences.

The opponents of Quakerism including Macaulay, the English historian, have seized upon every pretext however trivial to prejudice popular opinion against the distinguished philanthropist by allusions to his intimacy with King James the Second. Says Macaulay.

"Penn's father, the Admiral, had held great naval command, had been a commissioner of the Admiralty, had sat in Parliament, had received the honor of knighthood, and had been encouraged to expect a peerage. The son had been liberally educated, and had been designed for the profession of arms, but had while still young injured his prospects and disgusted his friends by joining what was then considered a gang of crazy heretics. He had been sent sometimes to the Tower and sometimes to Newgate prison. He had been tried at the Old Bailey for preaching "his gospel" in defiance of law. After a time, however, he had been reconciled to his family, and had succeeded in obtaining such powerful protection, that while the jails of England were filled with his brethren he was permitted during many years to profess his opinions "under protest" without molestation.

Toward the close of the reign of Charles the Second he had attained, in satisfaction of an old debt due him from the crown, the grant of an immense region in North America. In this tract then peopled by Indian hunters, he invited his persecuted brethren to settle. His colony was yet in its infancy when James ascended the throne. Between James and Penn there had long been a familiar acquaintance. The Quaker now became a courtier and almost a favorite. He was every day summoned from the gallery to the closet, and sometimes had long audiences while peers were kept waiting in the ante-chambers. It was noised abroad that he had more real power to help or hurt than many nobles who filled high offices. He was surrounded by flatterers and suppliants. His house at Kensington was sometimes thronged at his hour of rising by more than two hundred suitors.

That Penn was a frequent attendant at the court of the king and was received with favor is a fact incontrovertible, but let it be known and understood that he was not there as a willing courtier to fawn and flatter, nor to make silly obeisance to royality or nobility, nor to participate in the frivolities and silly buffoonries of the palace. His mission was one higher than this, and well Macaulay knew it. Ecclesiastical hate was strengthening against his people, the tithe gatherer was daily distressing them in every part of the realm, despoiling them of their goods, their implements and stocks of trade; the courts were oppressing them with their severe and arbitrary practices, mobs were breaking up their religious meetings. Many hundreds of them, men and women, were wearing out their lives in noisome jails and vainly pleading with the heartless authorities for deliverance from their sufferings, all for the sake of holy principles he knew well; for the same cruel wrath had been his own lot many times. In the warm sympathies of his great, brotherly heart, how could he fail to feel and listen without exerting his influences in their behalf? If, like the Christ of old, he mingled with publicans and sinners, and ate and drank with them, it was for a beneficient purpose like that of the Master. He was doing the work of humanity, while ostensibly to the condemning onlookers around him he was following, like the rest of them, the promptings of selfish propensities. He was steadfastly appealing to lords, to commoners, to judges, to barristers, to the clergy, to all classes in whom he might hope to find auxiliaries for the accomplishment of his magnanimous purpose. He strongly represented the sufferings of the Quakers on all occasions, whether in the presence of royalty or among the low-down people. He wrote earnest appeals not only for his own sect but also for the Catholics who were then under the lash of everybody.

A list was made out by him of persons against whom legal proceedings had been instituted either for non payment of tithes, refusal to take the oath, or for not attending the national church, and of whose loyalty certificates had been produced to the government. These persons he succeeded by his interposition in having discharged. In this way, as many as fifteen hundred Quakers and still a greater number of Roman Catholics regained their liberty. The aspersions of Macaulay against the fair fame of the great proprietor are purely vindictive and born of bitter religious prehate.

If Penn could be consulted about the disturbing of his ashes and their reburial in Westminster Abbey along with the many royal and noble villains who moulder there, he would respectfully decline the empty honor. He never cared for show, pomp or tinsel. He was one of the plain people striving for the good of all around him. He needs no mausoleum of marble or bronze to keep it fresh and venerated. His life of usefulness and his deeds of mercy for the lifting up of his kind will do that. He opened an asylum for the oppressed of the world. He instituted for them beneficent laws which amply protected for every man high or low the right to life and property. Death was inflicted only for murder and treason. This was remarkable when we consider that in England there were over two hundred offenses punishable by death, in the colony of New York the same number and in Massachusetts and South Carolina over twenty, Penn's object was to establish a community where "government could exist without military force, justice be administered without oaths and religion be sustained without salaried ministers." The laws he established questioned no man's nationality, social standing, nor religious belief. The immunities of all alike were to be acknowledged and cared for.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free Book. A Great Roast!

Over a ton of Arbuckles' Ariosa Coffee is roasted at a time, in a large revolving cylinder, which drops the coffee through heat again and again until each bean is uniformly roasted.

No other coffee is in sufficient demand to afford such scientific and perfect preparation.

The sales of Arbuckles' Ariosa Coffee exceed the sales of all other packaged coffees combined, and this scientific roasting, which no other coffee can afford, by its very magnitude, reduces our cost to a minimum, and enables us, with our other advantages, to give better value in Arbuckles' Ariosa Coffee than is possible for any one else.

Arbuckles' Ariosa Coffee is the cheapest good coffee in the world, and the best of all for you.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, JULY 29, 1907.

SENATOR EDMUND W. PETTUS, of Alabama, died at Hot Springs, N. C., Saturday night, aged 86 years—the oldest member of the Senate. He had been a member of that body a little over ten years, yet when he entered it he was already nearing seventy-six. His age, in fact, was the direct cause of his appearance at Washington with a commission as Senator. He was ambitious to round out his legal career with an appointment to the federal bench. He sought an appointment as judge under the second Cleveland administration, but one of the Alabama Senators, Mr. Pugh, declined to recommend him because he was "too old." Thereupon Mr. Pettus said: "If I am too old to be a judge I propose to show you that I am not too old to be a Senator." He succeeded Mr. Pugh on March 4, 1897, and was twice re-elected, the last time for the six-year term ending March 4, 1915. Mr. Pettus was a survivor from an age long past, and his character, manners and speech there was an unique and aboriginal savor. He had fought in the Mexican war, had been a Forty-niner in California, served as a a Confederate brigadier, and had been a figure in the courts and in politics in Alabama since the reconstruction era. He appeared regularly at democratic national conventions as chairman of the Alabama delegation, attending every convention from 1872 to 1896. In democratic politics he was therefore a link between the old and new regimes. As the patriarch of the Senate Mr. Pettus had a congenial and conspicuous role, filling it to the edification and delight of his colleagues. He did not succeed in connecting his name with great enterprises and policies as Mr. Morgan did; but he was an alert and industrious legislator whose opinions were valued. He had no oratorical vanity, and his long experience had taught him to husband his speech. But when he engaged in debate his homely, pungent and natural humor delighted and often convulsed the Senate. He was kindly, genial, sincere and simple, free from affectations and a hater of shams in theory or conduct. As a Senator his place can be filled; but, as well says the New York Tribune, as a Southerner of the older mould, a figure of the past recalling its vanished traditions and associations, its outward and inward life, he can have no successor.

WILLIAM HAYWOOD, who had recently been on trial in Boise, Idaho, for participation in the murder of former Governor Stuenenberg, is now a free man, having been declared innocent of the crime by a jury which has heard all the evidence in the case. The testimony of Orchard, the star witness against the accused, was not deemed by the jury of sufficient weight to convict Haywood. The verdict, however, will end the matter, as, according to the primary law of the land, no man can have his life jeopardized in a court of justice a second time. This case has attracted considerable attention, not only in the United States, but in other countries, where disorders and murders have resulted from labor issues. Orchard, while showing himself to be an unscrupulous man, has given testimony damaging to the Western Federation of Miners, and has described many of the ways and means which he alleged are adopted by that organization to further its aims. He may or may not have told the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth in all cases, but his constant appeals to many well-known facts in connection with the labor turmoils in Idaho appealed to many people at a distance as savoring of veracity. The jury, however, has thought differently. A dispatch from New York today announces that representatives of the socialist party have fixed upon Haywood as their candidate for President. They believe organized labor will heartily support him for the position.

THERE HAVE been four accidents on railroads running through this city, within a space of twelve hours. There was a disaster to a passenger train on the Southern Railway about 150 miles south of this city Saturday night and two Alexandrians were killed. A head-on collision between an Atlantic Coast line passenger train about the same time resulted in the death of one man. Simultaneously with the occurrence of these accidents a conductor on an electric train was dangerously injured by having his head caught in a trolley rope, jerked high in the air and thrown on his back on the rails. About ten o'clock yesterday morning, while those mishaps were being discussed, a colored man was the victim of a fatal accident in the Southern Railway yard in this city, the unfortunate man having fallen on the track and been run over by two cars.

IT IS reported from New Haven that after three trials, with an annually diminishing attendance, Yale University has decided to abandon its summer school after this year. The school has lost money each year, although many of the members of the faculty have given their services free of charge. Other summer schools have sprung up all over the country.

THE DEPARTMENT of the Interior has made public a report showing that any coal famine next winter will not be due to any lack of coal to be mined. Well, if the coal barons want to raise the price of coal again they will not let such a little thing as a department report prevent them from doing so. Perish the thought.

A NUMBER of New York girl artists have formed a club which imposes a pledge not to wed for three years. Judging from the pictures printed in some of the newspapers they might have extended their pledge to the end of their natural lives.

From Washington.

[Correspondende of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Eyes of the officials of the Department of Justice are being anxiously cast toward Virginia, where appearances indicate the probability of a struggle between Federal Judge Pritchard and State officials, similar to the serious differences just compromized in North Carolina. Judge Pritchard has suspended the enforcement of a new railway rate law in the Old Dominion, by enjoining the publication of the enactment passed by the railroad commission. The spirit of revolt against what is believed by some to be an encroachment upon State rights, has ignited public sentiment in Virginia to the point of open threats. Gov. Swanson is reported to have claimed that if the railroad commission saw fit to defy Judge Pritchard's injunction, and arrange for the publication of its rate order in the newspapers, he will give that body all the support within his power as chief executive. Officials of the Department of Justice decline to discuss the North Carolina settlement, because of its bearing upon the Virginia situation. Assistant Attorney General Sanford, who has been conferring on the question with Attorney General Bonaparte at Lenox, Mass., is expected to reach the department tomorrow.

In holding that the rate charged by the Southern Railway on cotton shipped by the Warren Manufacturing Company, of Augusta, Ga., from that point to New York, was not unreasonable, the Interstate Commerce Commission today clearly defined its position on State's rights as follows: "The commission holds that the absorption of a competing line of railway by another, in alleged violation of the statutes of a State, is a matter within the control of the State courts, and can be considered by the commission only in its ultimate results of inducing unreasonable rates. The violation of the so called anti-trust act by unwarranted agreements in restraint of trade by carriers of interstate commerce, is not within the jurisdiction of the commission but only the correction of unreasonable rates, which may be the purpose and effect of such illegal acts."

Some complaints against alleged unjust rates were made to the Interstate Commerce Commission. The Romona Olitic Stone Company, of Indiana, charges that the Chicago, Indianapolis and Louisville roads makes rates to them on the capacity of the cars, instead of on the amount of stone actually shipped. P. P. Griffin, of Lockhaven, Pa., dealing in lumber, charges the New York Central, the Erie, and the Delaware and Hudson with being unreasonable and excessive in their rates. J. H. Werberlovsky, of Brooklyn, glass dealer, complains that the rates of the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg road are unjust.

Advices have been received here to the effect that the attachments placed by the Salvadorean government upon the property of the Moissant brothers, the American citizens who were accused of formenting a resolution in that country has been removed.

Whether or not there is to be a rupture of diplomatic relations between the United States and Venezuela, will probably be decided by Congress next winter. W. W. Russell, American Minister to Caracas, has been asked for a full, detailed report regarding the refusal of President Castro to submit to arbitration the five claims of American citizens against that country, which have been pending an unreasonable length of time. Upon the receipt of his report, which will contain the argument of the Venezuelan Minister of foreign affairs, it is likely that further diplomatic notes will be exchanged until it becomes apparent that Castro does not propose to do justice to the American claimants. In that event, the whole matter will be laid before Congress for such action as that body may see fit to take. It is stated that there is no intention at this time of sending a battleship fleet to Venezuela for the purpose of seizing customs houses, and applying their proceeds to the payment of the American claims as has been suggested.

A dispatch from Oyster Bay says it was impossible to get the President to express any opinion on the verdict in the Haywood case.

Today's treasury receipts were $2,611,141; expenditures, $1,440,000.

The interstate Commerce Commission today ordered an investigation into the act of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railway system, charged with issuing passes to men who go on the bonds of officials of the road, in alleged violation of the railroad rate law.

Mary K. Kelburn was today appointed postmaster at Ballston, Alexandria county, Va., vice G. T. Warring, deceased.

A competitive examination for appointments to cadetships in the United States revenue cutter service will be held in this city September 9. The age limit is from 18 to 24 years.

FIRE AT CONEY ISLAND.

Coney Island, New York's pleasure resort, was visited by a disastrous fire early yesterday, and seven blocks in the amusement zone were completely destroyed. Tilyou's Steeplechase Park and nearly a score of small hotels were wiped out, and for a time the flames threatened destruction to Luna Park and Dreamland, great homes of summer amusement and the scores of smaller places which fringe the water's edge for a mile. A lucky shift of the wind to seaward aided the firemen and probably saved the whole picturesque area, but not until a million dollars damage had been done. Three persons were injured, one probably fatally. Coney Island has had four big fires in the last 10 years, the last previous one in 1903, "the Steeplechase" on that occasion being swept out, at it was yesterday.

DEATH OF SENATOR PETTUS.

United States Senator Edmund Winston Pettus, of Alabama, died Saturday night at 10 o'clock at Hot Springs, N. C., from the effects of a stroke of apoplexy with which he was seized while at the breakfast table Friday morning. His entire body was paralyzed, and he never recovered consciousness since that time.

Senator Pettus's daughter and his grandson, E. W. Pettus, jr., reached Hot Springs an hour before the Senator's death, but he did not recognize them.

Senator Pettus was born in Limestone county, Ala., July 6, 1821, the son of John and Alice T. (Winston) Pettus. Senator Pettus, on his mother's side, was a grandson of Capt. Anthony Winston, of Hanover county, Va., a soldier in the French and Indian war of 1754-1760, who, in 1776, moved from Virginia to the then almost unknown wilderness of Tennessee. Later he moved South, settling in north Alabama.

From 1844 to 1849 Senator Pettus was solicitor for the Seventh judicial circuit of Alabama, barring some eight months that he served as a lieutenant of Alabama volunteers in the Mexican war. On the discovery of gold in California in 1849, however, he abandoned his legal practice, and with a company of venturous young men, set forth on horseback across the plains to the new Eldorado.

He returned to Alabama in 1851, resuming his law practice in Gainesville, and in 1855 was elected judge of the Seventh judicial circuit of that State, a position he filled until 1858.

On the outbreak of the civil war he entered the service of the Confederacy as major of the Twentieth Alabama Infantry. Within the same year he was promoted to the place of lieutenant colonel, and on the death of the colonel he was promoted to that rank.

On May 22, 1863, he led Col. T. N. Waul's Texas legion in its desperate charge on the federal lines in a brave though fruitless effort to break the seige. For this service and as a reward for personal courage he was promoted to the rank of brigadier general.

Returning home at the close of the struggle he resumed his law practice and took an active interest in Alabama politics, and on November 16, 1896, was nominated by the democratic caucus of the Alabama legislature for the U. S. Senate and was elected by a vote of 67 to 26, the other candidates for that place being Senator Pugh, Congressman Bankhead and Governor Oates. His term expired on March 3, 1903, but he was renominated and re-elected.

As a member of the Senate he served on the judiciary, military affairs, railroads, privileges and elections, and Indian depredations committees.

Former Governor Joseph F. Johnston, of Birmingham, will succeed Senator Pettus for the unexpired term of nearly two years, and it is expected that the legislature, which is in session, will also elect him for the new term, beginning March 4, 1908.

HAYWOOD ACQUITTED.

Wm. D. Haywood, secretary and treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners, was yesterday morning acquitted of the murder of former Governor Frank Steunenburg by the jury in Boise, Idaho.

Probability of acquittal was freely predicted after Judge Fremont Wood read his charge, which was regarded as strongly favoring the defense in its interpretation of the laws of conspiracy, circumstantial evidence and the corroboration of a confessed accomplice.

It was also freely predicted that, in the event of Haywood's acquittal, the State would abandon the prosecution of his associates, Charles E. Moyer, president of the federation, and George A. Pettibone, of Denver. Statements from counsel and from Governor Gooding, issued yesterday, dispel this view of the situation. Governor Gooding said:

"The verdict is a great surprise to me and, I believe, to all citizens of Idaho who have heard or read the evidence in the case. I have done my duty. I have no regret as to any action I have taken, and my conscience is clear. As long as God gives me strength I shall continue my efforts for government by law and for organized society. The State will continue a vigorous prosecution of Moyer and Pettibone, and of Adams and of Simpkins when apprehended. There will be neither hesitation nor retreat."

Not the least interesting of the comments made upon the verdict yesterday was that of Harry Orchard, the confessed murderer of Stuenenberg and the witness of whom the State chiefly relied to prove its charge of conspiracy among certain members of the Western Federation of Miners. When told at the State penitentiary that Haywood had been acquitted Orchard said:

"Well, I have done my duty; I have told the truth; I could do no more; I am ready to take any punishment that may be meted out to me for my crime, and the sooner it comes the better."

It was after being out for 21 hours that the jury, which first had been divided, 8 to 4 for acquittal, and then seemed deadlocked, at 10 to 2, finally came to an agreement shortly after dawn yesterday.

Tears welled in Haywood's eyes when the verdict was announced.

There was no demonstration other than that made by the attorneys for the defense when the verdict was declared.

The court proceedings were over, the prisoner was discharged and the jury dismissed in less than three minutes' time.

VENEZUELA REFUSES.

The Venezuelan foreign office has handed over to the American minister, W. W. Russell, the answer of the Venezuelan government to the second note from Secretary Root regarding the arbitration of five American claims. The government persists in its refusal to arbitrate the claims in question. The reply is a lengthy document, and answers in detail the arguments advanced by Mr. Root. The opinion is held in Caracas in some quarters that this answer may lead to the severing of diplomatic relations between Venezuela and the United States.

The refusal was no great surprise to the State Department, which had expected some such answer. It is believed that Venezuela relies on the fact that the United States is an advocate of the Drago doctrine before The Hague, and will not prejudice its case there by attempting to collect the claims by force.

New York Stock Market.

New York, July 29.—The market was without special festure this morning and at the end of the first hour there were few changes worth noting in any part of the room. After the decline at the end of the first hour the market became steady and there was evidence of a demand at the lower price levels than reached that seemed large enough to take any amount of stock that might be offered.

Piles get quick and certain relief from Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. Its action is positive and certain. Itching, painful, protruding or blind piles disappear like magic by its use. Large nickel-capped glass jars 50 cents. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

A TRUCE IN THE RATE MATTER.

The conflict between the State of North Carolina and the railways over the new State rate law, which at one time threatened such serious consequences, was amicably adjusted Saturday at a conference held in Raleigh between Governor Glenn and officials of the roads.

The Southern Railway and the Atlantic Coast Line, through their general counsel, and the stockholders of the Atlantic Coast Line, who had enjoined that road from putting into effect the State 2½ cent rate, through their counsel agreed to put the rate into effect on the 8th of August, the earliest possible the roads could prepare their tariffs and make the changes.

An agreement also was reached to proceed in an orderly way in the courts and to end pending cases and indictments, the agreement being practically that suggested by Governor Glenn in his telegram to Solicitor Brown at Asheville.

The agreement entered into by the Southern, the Atlantic Coast Line and the State is:

First—The railroads to put the 2½ cent rate into effect not later than August 8, 1907.

Second—The State to appeal from the order of Judge Pritchard discharging parties in Asheville on writ of habeas corpus.

Third—The Southern Railway to appeal to the Supreme Court of North Carolina in the Wake county cases, and if the case is decided against it to take the case, by writ of error, to the Supreme Court of the United States.

Fourth—That both sides co-operate to have both of said cases advanced and argued together and speedily determined.

Fifth—The State, at its option, to indict the Atlantic Coast Line in one case.

Sixth—All indictments and prosecutions now pending to be dismissed, and no other indictments or prosecutions to be instituted for any alleged violations of the law up to the time the new two-and a-quarter-cent rate is put into effect under this arrangement, as far as the governor can control the same.

Seventh—The governor to advise all people against bringing any penaly suits pending final determination of the question involved, and to ask the people as a whole to acquiesce in this arrangement.

Eighth—The suit pending before Judge Prichard to be diligently prosecuted without the State, however, waiving any question of jurisdiction.

Messrs. Thom and Humphrey, as counsel for the Southern Railway Company, undertake that the Southern Railway will not inaugurate contempt proceedings because of anything heretofore done by any of the State officers in connection with the rate litigation and will do what they can to prevent the inauguration of any such contempt proceedings.

This arrangement between the Southern Railway and Governor Glenn is also assented to by George Rountree, attorney for R. Nelson Buckley and others, complainants, and Alexander Hamilton, general counsel for the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, except that they do not consent that the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company shall be indicted in one case; but, as to that, leaving the State at liberty to do as its sense of duty may dictate.

Governor Swanson on Saturday, in discussing the action Virginia proposed to take in connection with the injunction issued by Judge Pritchard, restraining the corporation commission from putting the Virginia rate law into effect, said:

"The corporation commission was prevented from perfecting the act necessary to fixing the rate by the injunction of Judge Pritchard directing them not to publish their order in the newspapers, as required by the constitution. Thus, there is no two-cent law in Virginia today, and none that I can enforce. If the corporation commission had or should perfect their order establishing a two-cent rate in Virginia all the powers possessed by me as governor to the fullest and most fearless extent would be exercised by me for its enforcement and to compel obedience to the order by the railroad companies. As the chief executive of the State, I can do nothing to enforce such law until it has been completed by the corporation commission. The order of Judge Pritchard in the Virginia case is outrageous. He says the fixing of a rate by the corporation commission is a legislative act, and yet he restrains this legislative body in Virginia from doing what is absolutely necessary to complete an act of legislation under our constitution. The corporation commission is paramount to the general assembly of Virginia in fixing rates. Thus, Judge Pritchard had more right to enjoin the legislature from passing an act fixing the 2-cent rate than he hand to enjoin the corporation commission, since the corporation commission under our constitution is made paramount to the legislature. If Judge Pritchard can enjoin the corporation commission from performing its duties in fixing a rate and completing it, he can enjoin the legislature. If the corporation commission is a court, Judge Pritchard is clearly prohibited by federal statute from issuing a restraining order. If it is a legislative body, as he claims, he certainly has no right to arrest a State legislative body in one of its necessary processes of enacting laws. When he tries to do this, he is assuming authority possessed by no Federal judge, and his order should not be obeyed. "The rights and dignity of the State will be maintained to the fullest extent. When the 2-cent rate is perfected by publication and becomes operative in the State, it is my purpose to see it enforced, and to do this I shall exercise all the powers possessed by me as governor."

Senator Daniel, who has been retained by the State to assist Attorney General Anderson and Allen C. Braxton in Virginia's fight for two-cent railroad rates Saturday had a talk with Governor Swanson, and he and Major Anderson went over the whole situation together. Senator Daniel likewise had a conference with Mr. Braxton. Despite the secrecy maintained, however, the opinion prevails in some quarters that the Old Dominion is soon to make a decisive move of some sort.

Cured of Lung Trouble.

"It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored to my normal weight, 170 pounds." Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Fire and Loss of Life.

New York, July 29.—The Black Hand was almost certainly responsible for a tenement house fire early today in which nineteen persons lost their lives and about thirty were more or less seriously injured.

To the same organization the police attribute yesterday's fire at Coney Island which swept a 35-acre tract in the heart of the resort, licking up Steeplechase Park and other property with a total loss estimated at $1,500,000.

Today's fire was in a 6-story tenement at 222 Christie street. It is possible the list of dead may exceed nineteen, the police fearing that more bodies may be found in the ruins, and of the thirty injured several will probably die.

The blaze was characterized by a terrific panic in which men, maddened with fear, trampled on women and children and pushed several from ladders and fire escapes in their own efforts to reach safety.

The fire, starting with an explosion in the basement, swept from top to bottom of the 6-story structure so quickly that the tenants had no opportunity to escape down the stairways, but were driven to the fire escapes. The flames bursting through the windows swept even these places of refuge, forcing the occupants either to dash back into the burning building or drop to death on the pavement below.

Fearing the vengeance of the Black Hand few of the residents in the vicinity raised a hand to aid those in the burning tenement. There was a delay, too, in turning in an alarm and the panic made it almost impossible for the police and firemen to do effective work. It was necessary to knock down several men who persisted in trying to rush down the ladders, leaving women and children to their fate. One mother, certain her children had perished, preferred death to rescue, and leaped from a sixth story fire escape with the firemen only a few feet away and was dashed to death by her fall.

Wm. Brandt, who gave the first alarm, was passing through Christie street in front of the tenement when a terrific explosion, supposedly of a bomb, blew out the entire front of the Nicalo Dimaco's store on the ground floor and dashed Brandt from his feet. The entire neighborhood was awakened by the explosion. Instantly the head of every family within hearing seemed to begin firing his revolver. Thinking they had thus given warning that their homes were guarded, the authors of the fusillade retired to their rooms and locked the doors. The Italian tenants rushed into the halls but were instantly driven back by the flames. The families on the first and second floors are believed to have escaped in safety, but those above had no such chance. They stood in clusters on the fire escapes, the men in places of vantage fighting back their own wives and children that they might have a better chance of rescue. Women and children began leaping from upper story windows even before the first fire engine reached the scene. A few were able to limp away, but most of them were unable to rise and were lifted into ambulances and taken to hospitals. Italian detectives were rushed to the scene. They report positively it was of incendiary origin, adding that many of the tenants of the building have been terrorized by the Black Hand.

Aerial Engines of Destruction.

Berlin, July 29.—Emperor William's palace was destroyed — figuratively—today by a bomb dropped from the sky. A similar fate befell many magnificent business blocks and mansions lining the famous Unter der Linden. The military airship, capable of carrying quick firing guns, a crew of six men, and operated irrespective of any wind that blows, according to the claims made for it, was the instrument of "destruction." A paper bomb dopped into the palace, theoretically, destroyed it. Similar bombs wrecked the Unter der Linden mansions. After performing numerous evolutions to the cheers of thousands, the aerial warship sailed from the city.

Attempt to Mob Motorman.

New York, July 29.—Charles Capus, struck by an electric car early today, will lose his right leg because the crowd which saw the accident was so anxious to mob the motorman that they entirely forgot his victim. Policemen surrounded the car when the rush came and fought for thirty minutes to save the threatened motorman. Meantime the injured man lay unnoticed on the sidewalk. When observed by one of those in the crowd he was nearly dead from the loss of blood. Physicians at Bellevue Hospital say his leg could have been saved by prompt attention, but that now it is too late.

Freak of Religious Enthusiast.

New York, July 29.—Crazed with a religious mania to the extent of believing she could walk on the water, May Loughlin today made the attempt. She is in Bellevue Hospital and chances favor her recovery. East river was the scene of Miss Loughlin's experiment. She plunged off a pier imagining her faith would make her triumphant. Bystanders fished her out as she was going down the last time.

The Japanese in Korea

Seoul, Korea, July 29.—The strong hand of the Japanese military forces has finally put an end to rioting in Seoul. The Japanese had hard fight and considerable damage was done in Saturday night's rioting. There is still uneasiness, and it is doubted if order can be permanently maintained until the arrival of the reinforcements now on their way from home. Outside Seoul it is vaguely rumored there have been serious disturbances.

Mr. Bryan Approves the Verdict.

Peoria, Ills., July 29.—Mr. Bryan, who passed through the city last night approved the verdict in the Haywood case. He said he had followed the trial closely and did not see how anyone could be found guilty on Orchard's testimony. He said there would be general regret if the evidence was sufficient to convict the officials of the great labor organizations of any crime.

Hotel Burned.

Long Beach, L. I. July 29.—The Long Beach Hotel, one of the most popular resorts on the southern shore of Long Island, was practically destroyed by fire early today. All the guests escaped in safety and no one is reported injured. The loss will reach $1,000,000. Two persons whose names have not been learned are reported missing.

Ordered to Retire from Office.

[Special dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., July 29.—Insurance Commissioner Bulton today ordered that A. D. Gagler, President of the Old Dominion Protective Association of Alexandria, retire from office, and failure to obey the order will be followed by action on the part of the Attorney General. The action of the commissioner followed the complaint of methods of the association in regard to certain reinsurance transactions.

Suicide Pact.

Atlanta, Ga., July 29.—The failure of the nerve of one of the parties to a suicide pact at the critical moment is responsible for Louise Outre and Nettie Day, 15-year-old girls, being arrested instead of dead today.

Love for each other caused the girls to make their vows to die together yesterday. Nettie jumped into the river to drown herself, but Louise, losing her nerve, plunged in and dragged out the would-be-suicide. Both girls are telephone operators.

President Receives Telegram.

Oyster Bay, July 29.—President Roosevelt this afternoon made public the following telegram:

New York, July 29.

President Roosevelt:

Undesirable citizens victorious. Rejoice. EMMA GOLDMAN.

ALEXANDER BERKMAN.

Secretary Loeb said the President had no comment to make upon the anarchistic message. "It speaks for itself," said the Secretary.

Fighting Still in Progress.

Tangier, July 29.—Furious fighting is still in progress between the forces of Raisuli, the bandit, and government troops seeking to rescue Kaid MacLean, the military adviser, who is held a prisoner by Raisuli. The prisoners captured during the battle are constantly arriving here. Frightened residents of the district in which the clash occurred also have hastened here. Fifty heads of fighting men are reported to have been cut off. News of MacLean is unobtainable.

Will be Admitted to Bail?

Denver, July 29.—That President Charles H. Moyer, of the Western Federation of Miners, will be admitted to $20,000 or $25,000 bail is the general opinion in Boise according to dispatches from that city. It is believed that Geo. Pettibone's release will be refused.

A latter dispatch says an arrangement between the attorneys was finally reached so that Moyer should be released on $25,000 within 24 hours. The case of Pettibone is still pending.

Comments on the Verdict.

London, July 29.—Near-anarchy. This is the term applied largely by English newspapers to the Haywood verdict at Boise. Conditions in Idaho are severely criticized by the conservative journals and the whole United States comes in for a hard scolding. Some of the papers find in the verdict a theme to caution the British government against the growth of socialism, saying England is threatened similarly.

Three Men Killed.

Brockton, Mass., July 29.—A locomotive with an empty passenger car attached dashed into the rear of a freight train shortly after midnight, killing three men and injuring four others, all of whom will probably die. The engineer of the passenger was hurled against his lever with such force that he died half an hour later.

Suicide of Young Woman.

New York, July 29.—Using a cord made by tieing her white skirt into strips and twisting them together, Christina Lindoler, a beautiful 24-year-old girl, killed herself today in a clothes press in the Williamsburg factory where she worked. Despondency caused by a love affair is believed to have caused the suicide.

Killed in Riots.

Nantes, France, July 29.—Four dead is the figure now given as the casualties in yesterday's rioting here. Just how many persons were injured is not known, but the number is large. Three officers and twenty soldiers are in the hospitals today as a result of the fighting.

NEGRO LYNCHED.

Night Policeman John H. Dougherty, of Crisfield, Md., was shot and instantly killed Saturday night by James Reed, a half negro and half Indian, while conveying a negro prisoner to the lockup.

Reed escaped, but was captured in Tangier Sound yesterday. He was taken to Crisfield, and as soon as he was put ashore he was attacked by an infuriated mob, which kicked him to death. His body was suspended from a telephone pole, where it remained for some time in full gaze of all passers by.

The coroner's jury met yesterday after the body had been cut down. The verdict implicated no one.

Race feeling has been aroused by the tragedy and further trouble may follow.

Policeman Dougherty met his death about 9 o'clock after he had taken into custody Hilleary Jones, colored, whom he found in an eating-house in the negro quarter and against whom several writs had been issued. Jones was a friend and partner of Reed, and when the latter saw him in the officer's charge he borrowed a pistol of Lemual Showell, also a negro, and creeping up behind the officer shot him in the back of the head. Death was instantaneous.

Reed after killing the policeman mounted a bicycle and rode away. He later abandoned the wheel and entered a sailboat for the purpose of escaping into Virginia. A calm set in and his pursuers were soon close upon him. When they approached Reed jumped overboard to swim ashore. He was overtaken and hauled aboard a naptha launch which had gone in pursuit.

The body of Reed was stolen last night by a mob of enraged men. The mob burned the body after saturating it with oil. A large post was driven into the ground, the body lashed to it with rope and wire and a pile of wood was placed at the foot. Cheers were given as the flames arose.

Powers Again on Trial.

Georgetown, Ky., July 29.—Caleb Powers was placed on trial here today for the fourth time, charged with complicity in the murder of Senator Wm. Goebel years ago. Georgetown is comparatively quiet on the first day of the trial and only about 200 persons were in the court room.

The Market.

Georgetown, July 29.—Wheat 73a78

News of the Day.

A plot to assassinate General Roediger, minister of war, was unearthed by the St. Petersburg police Saturday. Several arrests have been made.

Mrs. Emma Barret Blanchard, wife of Gov. Newton Crain Blanchard, of Louisiana, died in Mineral Wells, Tex., Saturday, after an extended illness from Bright's disease.

Mrs. Lucinda M. Morton, eighty-two years old, widow of Oliver P. Morton, Indiana's war governor, died yesterday at her home in Indianapolis. She had been in feeble health for some time.

Mrs. Snyder, wife of Harry L. Snyder editor and publisher of the Shepherdstown Register, met a tragic death in a driving accident yesterday afternoon. In attempting to jump from her carraige Mrs. Snyder was thrown upon her head. In addition to other serious injuries her neck was broken and life was extinct when aid reached her.

Henry Huntington, son of Douglas St. Georges Huntington, former attache of the American Embassy in Paris, was arrested at Versailles last night on the charge of shooting his two sisters and one of his brothers. The condition of the sisters was said to be serious. The tragedy occurred at the bedside of the father, who was dying and was the outcome of chronic trouble in the family.

Joseph Givens, the wealthiest turpentine operator in Alabama, is dead because he disagreed with his wife as to the style she should adopt in dressing her hair, and expressed that disagreement by pulling the tresses of Mrs. Givens. Mrs. Givens resented the tug which Mr. Givens gave her hair, and, seizing a shotgun, discharged the contents into her husband's breast, instant death resulting.

Pitiful tales of the famine in China, where 15,000,000 natives in the hunger-stricken provinces along the Yangtse Kiang river have undergone the ravages of slow starvation until death or the relief expeditions delivered them from their sufferings, are told in letters which have just been recieved at the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions in New York, from Dr. William H. Gleysteen, who headed a relief expedition from Pekin.

Lieut. Col. Charles G. Ayres, retired, will appeal his case to the American people through their representatives in Congress. He is already taking steps to have a bill introduced at the next session providing that his case be either reopened or that he be retired with the rank of brigadier general. Col. Ayres declares that the antagonism of the administration and the War Department is due to his defense of his wife in her controversy with the military authorities at West Point.

One lone highwayman held up two stages and two private conveyances on the Potter Valley road, ten miles north of Ukiah, Cal., Saturday afternoon. He lined up the forty-five passengers beside the road and relieved them of their valuables and several hundred dollars. Not a shot was fired and no one was injured. The robber showed great coolness and no gallantry to women. He forced one woman to give up her wedding ring, although she promised to send him fifty dollars if he would let her keep it.

ANOTHER STEAMER BURNED.

The Frontenac, an old side-wheel steamer that had been plying on Lake Cayuga, N. Y., for twenty-five years, was burned to the water's edge Saturday. She carried a load of excursionists, mostly women and children. When the fire was discovered the boat was turned toward the shore, but it was soon seen that there was no hope of saving her, and the crew turned their attention to the helpless passengers. Nearly all were supplied with life-preservers, yet before the boat could be beached nine of them were forced overboard and drowned. The bodies of the drowned women and children were recovered, and the injured were cared for at the homes of persons near the scene of the wrecked steamer.

DIED.

On Monday morning, July 29, at 11 o'clock, at her residence on south Lee street, Miss LOUISA SNOWDEN, eldest daughter of the late Edgar and Louisa Grymes Snowden. Funeral from her late home on Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Interment private.

ACCIDENT ON THE SOUTHERN.

Northbound train No. 36, of the Southern Railway, ran into a split switch Saturday night at Shipman (Oak Ridge), near the scene of the Estes murder, derailing and wrecking the engine and two cars. Two persons were killed and 18 injured. Among the dead are W. O. Ballard, engineer, formerly of this city, but recently of Washington, and William N. Clark, railroad foreman, of Alexandria. W. M. Johnson, colored, of Alexandria, was injured in the accident.

The body of Engineer Ballard was sent to the home of his widow in Washington, and that of Clark, the railroad foreman, who was riding in the engine at the time of the accident, was sent to this city.

Although Clark's injuries were frightful he lived for three hours in entire consciousness of his condition. He strongly expressed the wish that his friends would see that the railway company did something for his widow, who is an invalid, and his 8 children. His face was crushed and he was horribly scalded.

Ballard's left leg was broken and there was a hole in the left side of his head and he was badly burned about the face.

There seems to be no doubt that the accident was due to a split switch, although a south-bound freight train passed over it safely 45 minutes before the wreck. The supposition is that the split resulted from a bolt purposely or accidentally wedged between the point of the farther edge and the main line rail, forcing it open.

The wreck of the engine was complete, the boiler only remaining whole. The baggage, mail coaches and both day coaches jumped the track.

While none of the passengers were badly injured there was great excitement among them, some of them jumping from the windows.

The funeral of Engineer Ballard will take place tomorrow morning from the residence in Washington and the burial will be in Congressional Cemetery. The deceased was a member of the Masonic fraternity.

The remains of William M. Clark were brought here yesterday and prepared for burial by Demaine & Son. The dead man was a native of Culpeper, and the body will be sent to Rapidan, tomorrow morning, for interment. Clark was thirty-five years old and lived with his wife and eight young children at 1927 Duke street.

ACCIDENT TO CONDUCTOR.

Mr. Charles W. Nowland, a conductor on the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway, was seriously injured late last Saturday night at the Dyke, a short distance below this city. Mr. Nowland was off duty and was returning to this city on a car. He volunteered to look after the trolley for Conductor Parks while the latter made up his ticket report, and was standing on the bumper outside of the platform railing. As the car rounded a sharp curve the trolley wheel left the wire with an upward jerk, caused by the heavy spring that holds it up, and the trolley rope caught Mr. Nowland under the chin. He was lifted almost as high as the top of the car and fell on the tracks. The car was stopped immediately and Mr. Nowland was picked up unconscious and bleeding from a bad gash on the back of his head. Upon reaching this city the injured man was taken to his home, 423 south Fairfax street, where Dr. E. A. Gorman made an examination of his injuries. He found, besides the cut on the head, that several ribs and the thumb of Mr. Nowland's right hand had been broken. His condition is regarded as serious.

COLORED MAN KILLED.

Alexander McLilly, colored, a laborer employed in the yard of the Southern Railway in this city, was instantly killed about 10 o'clock yesterday morning under two freight cars which were being shifted down an incline at the coal chute. McLilly was riding on the front car, which was run into by the one behind, the jar causing the man to lose his hold and fall under the wheels. Both cars passed over the unfortunate man, terrible mangling him. The remains were removed to the undertaking rooms of W. Demaine & Son, where a jury, summoned by Coroner Samuel B. Moore, conducted an inquest yesterday afternoon. The verdict was that the man had come to his death in the manner stated above, and that the railway company was negligent in regard to the arrangement for shifting cars at the chute. Messrs Robert M. Graham, foreman; L. C. Leatherland, W. Dent, William Poss, Louis Bargarman, and Samuel R. Pitts composed the jury.

ACCUSED DISMISSED.

Conductor Charles W. Simpson and Motorman Thomas E. Croseu, of the electric railway, were cited to appear before the Police Court this morning by Officers Bell and Henderson charged with running an electric train on King street last Saturday night at an unlawful rate of speed. The arrest was made at the instance of Mayor Paff who had summoned Mr. J. H. Bartlett, formerly a conductor on the Washington-Southern Railway, as a witness. The Mayor stated that the speed of the train attracted his attention, and Mr. Bartlett said it was running about twice as fast as allowed within the city limits. The accused said the train stopped on the switch at Washington street, and was obliged to slow up between Columbus and Alfred as a team was near the track. They averred also that the train ran from Washington street to Spring Park in four minutes, which is not an excessive rate of speed. Justice Thompson, before whom the accused were brought, dismissed them with the observation that there was a temptation to run empty trains on their way to the power house at too rapid a rate of speed within the city limits and that in future when the law was violated the usual fine would be imposed. The two men were represented by Mr. Baudolph Caton.

The excursion of the Ramblers' Club has been postponed until a future date which will be announced later.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Malinda Level and Fannie Johnson, both colored, charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $5 each.

Thomas Hall, Wm. Cook and Chester Kuhn, charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $2.50 each.

Lillian Blair, charged with interfering with an officer in the discharge of his duty, was fined $5.

Elmer Lewis, Timothy Madden and Edward Downs, charged with trespassing upon Southern Railway cars, were fined $5. William Benzette, arrested on the same charge, was dismissed, and George and John Watson were given one hour in which to leave the city. These men had previously been arrested on suspicion of robbing cars.

Conductor Charles W. Simpson and Motorman Thomas E. Croson were brought before Justice Thompson charged with running an electric train at an unlawful rate of speed. The accused were discharged with an admonition.

RIVER NOTES.

The steamer Dennis Simmons, from Williamston, N. C., with lumber for Alexandria dealers, has arrived.

Captain Frank Phillips, of the steamer Washington, which arrived from Norfolk yesterday morning, reports four ice-laden schooners in the river—the Lewis H. Dodd, Lydia Deering, Helen H. Benedict and Daylight. The Dodd and Benedict will unload ice at this port for the Mutual Ice Company.

The schooner Lulu M. Quillin, from Severn river with sand for the Old Dominion Glass Company, has arrived at W. A. Smoot & Co.'s wharf.

The steamer Calvert, which left this port about 5 o'clock yesterday evening for Baltimore, broke her pump while off Jones's Point and was compelled to return to Washington where the pump was repaired. The Calvert left about ten o'clock last night.

The tugboat Bartholdi made trips to the ark yesterday. She carried few passengers, however. It is said that the gambling paraphernalia has been removed from the ark.

DEATH OF MISS SNOWDEN.

Miss Louisa Snowden, eldest daughter of the late Edgar and Louisa Grymes Snowden, of this city, died, after a long illness, at her home on south Lee street at eleven o'clock this morning. Owing to failing health she had lived a secluded life for years, seeing only a few of her old friends from time to time. Her mind was a storehouse of memories of the civil war, especially alive to all the incidents and events that happened in and around this city during that time and her heart beat with warmest sympathy for everything that commemorated the "Lost Cause."

INVITATION EXTENDED.

Mr. J. S. Douglas, jr., went to Richmond Saturday and extended an invitation to the Virginia Boat Club of that city to participate with the Old Dominion Boat Club of Alexandria in the regatta on Labor Day, the first Monday in September. There was a manifest desire on the part of the Virginia Club to accept the invitation, although nothing definite was expressed. It is, however, believed that the association will avail itself of this opportunity to visit Alexandria.

FINED FOR DISORDERLY CONDUCT.

Thomas Hall, William Cook and Chester Kuhn, all young men, arrested by Officers Young and Garvey charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $2.50 each in the Police Court this morning. The trio are alleged to be members of a gang which assembles in the vicinity of Stone Bridge at night and annoy quiet people. The police are endeavoring to break up such gatherings in all portions of the city.

CIVIL SERVICE OFFICE.

The second floor of the postoffice building will soon be occupied as a branch office of the civil service commission. Furniture and other fixings for the room have arrived and are being placed in position. As heretofore stated the commission decided to occupy this office owing, it is said, to the overcrowded condition in Washington. The office was formerly used by the collector of internal revenue for this district.

FIRE IN MACHINE SHOP.

The alarm of fire about two o'clock yesterday morning was caused by the discovery of a blaze in the second story of the machine shops of W. S. Moore & Sons, southwest corner of the Strand and Duke street. The loss is covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown, but is believed to have been caused by incendiaries.

YESTERDAY.

The temperature yesterday, while higher than that which prevailed Saturday, was by no means oppressive, and, the day was generally enjoyed. Rain began to fall at 3:15 this morning, and there were some heavy showers. Others have followed during the day. The temperature has been pleasant.

ROBBERY AT MANASSAS.

A telephone message was received at police headquarters from Manassas this morning stating that Hibb & Giddings' store at that place was broken open and robbed last night. The robbery is believed to have been committed by negroes and two have been arrested on suspicion.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The members of the police force of this city propose to give an excursion to Marshall Hall the latter part of August.

George Montgomery, the colored man who shot Dr. Hoos on Friday, was sentenced by Judge Kimball in the Washington Police Court Saturday to pay a fine of $100 or go to the workouse for nine months for carrying concealed weapons. Montgomery is said to be the negro who shot Brakeman Johnson on a C. & O. freight train early last Friday morning.

Virginia News.

Mrs. Margaret Hibbs, aged ninety-three years, widow of Soloman Hibbs, died recently at Pleasant Valley, Loudoun county.

Miss S. Parker Herndon, daughter of the late Dr. Broadus Herndon, of Fredericksburg, died Saturday night at the Mary Washington Hospital, of typhoid fever.

James W. Triplett, aged seventy-three, died at his home near Upperville last week. He was a Confederate soldier, and is survived by his wife and two daughters and one son.

Burglars broke into the depot at Riverton Saturday night by sawing the iron bars of one of the windows. Fifty dollars in cash was stolen, as well as a diamond ring valued at $200, belonging to the agent, Preston Hite. The floor was littered with torn tickets, and it is presumed that others were kept by the thieves.

John McIntosh, a young married man and a painter by trade, attempted to commit suicide in a store in Winchester during the busy hours of Saturday night by drinking the contents of an ounce vial of laudanum. A physician saved his life by using a stomach pump. McIntosh has made several attempts to poison himself in recent years.

A meeting of the Chesapeake Presbytery of Virginia was held at the Presbyterian Church in Leesburg Friday to take action upon the resignation of Dr. J. W. Lupton as pastor of the church at Leesburg. Dr. Lupton will retire from active ministry on September 1 and will make his home in Winchester. Rev. Joseph R. Sevier, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of Alexandria, and moderator of the Presbytery, preached at church in Leesburg on Thrusday evening.

A head-on collision occurred Saturday night about 9 o'clock a short distance north of Stony Creek, Va., between the Atlantic Coast Line train No. 35, "Florida Special," and the second section of No 80, northbound. Both engines were badly damaged, the mail car was stove in and the head express car on No. 80 derailed. The accident was caused by Engineer Bradshaw, of No. 85, forgetting his orders. One man was killed, Hardy Dorhan, a fireman. Six passengers were slightly injured.

The special grand jury appointed by Judge Woods, of the Corporation Court of Roanoke, to investigate the riots there 10 days ago, when a mob wrecked all the Greek restaurants and shoe-shining parlors in town, met again yesterday and returned eight more indictments, three of them being against the Greeks who participated in the fight in the Belmont Restaurant, where the trouble originated. All of the indicted Greeks have disappeared. An indictment for felony was found against one of the Americans indicted last week for misdemeanor, and four more Americans were indicted for misdemeanor. The grand jury has adjourned.

The Doctor Away from Home when Most Needed.

People are often very much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like cramp colic and cholera morbus require prompt treatment, and have in many instances proven fatal before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Dirrahoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. By having it in the house you escape much pain and suffering and all risk. Buy it now; it may save life. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Gibson & Timberman.

SCHOOL EXHIBIT.

The Virginia school exhibit located in the education wing of the Administration building at the Jamestown Exposition is now practically complete, the exhibit of only three counties out of the fifty-nine represented being missing.

The exhibit from Bedford has arrived and is being installed and those of Fairfax and Washington are daily expected.

Of the one hundred counties in the State fifty-nine will have exhibits, as will also eleven cities. The best county exhibits are those of Norfolk county and Wise, while among the cities the exhibits of Norfolk, Newport News, Richmond and Lynchburg lead.

The Virginia exhibit takes up the greater part of the Education building. The collection and installation was made entirely by Prof. Willis A. Jenkins, chairman of the State Board of Examiners, who was formerly superintendent of the Portsmouth schools and later supervising principal of the Newport News schools.

Prof. Jenkins said yesterday that he expected a great attendance from the Virginia teachers during August, as this would be the only time they would have an opportunity to visit the Exposition.—[Norfolk Ledger.

Wise Counsel from the South.

"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. K. Blankenship, of Beckham, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief and after taking a few more bottles I was completely cured; so completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under guarantee at E. S. Lerdbeater & Son's drug store.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.
